

THREE LABOR LEADERS THAT MAY YET SERVE PRISON TERMS. FROM LEFT TO RIGHT: MITCHELL, FRANK MORRISON AND SAMUEL GO MPERS.

Just before Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, left for Europe, he went with John Mitchell and Frank Morrison to see President Taft and plead the cause of labor. The president promised his visitors he would look into the labor complaints and undertake to correct them wherever possible. He also invited these gentlemen to submit to him amendments they desired to any existing laws. The date of the final appeal for their trial for alleged contempt has not been definitely set, but should the decision of the first trial not be reversed these men will all serve prison terms, especially as they refuse absolutely to pay any fine.

MISCELLANEOUS ODDS AND ENDS OF INTEREST.

To Remove Scratches from Polished Furniture—Cleaning Mother-of-Pearl Bric-a-brac—Comfortable Position for Sewing.

A scratch on polished furniture can be almost obliterated by rubbing vigorously with linseed oil.

If an iron is not at hand when marking clothes with indelible ink, hold the writing against a lighted lamp chimney or gas globe. Garments that are to be hung out to air can be put on hangers, rather than pinned to the line. This prevents sagging or marking with clothespins.

Bric-a-brac containing mother-of-pearl should never be cleaned with soap and water. Instead, it should be rubbed with a cloth dipped into whitening and water.

If, when using lemon for flavoring, you need only half a one, put the other half on a plate and cover with a glass tumbler. This excludes the air and prevents it from drying up or getting moldy.

If some of your country friends have sent you a box of flowers that are the worse for a journey, do not throw half of them out before plunging the stems in hot water in which has been put a few drops of ammonia.

Let the flowers stand in hot water for about five minutes, then cut the ends of the stems and put them in cold water. The blossoms and leaves will be found to be wonderfully revived.

Hair brushes should be cleaned at least once a week, if not oftener. Men, especially, are apt to neglect this duty, not only undignified, but because they have no time to think about it. I know of one mother who gathers up the combs and brushes of her four sons regularly once a week and washes them in borax and water. A despoiled spoonful of borax to a quart of hot water, she tells me, is the correct proportion. The brushes should always be rinsed afterward in clear water and if possible set to dry in the sun. Steam heat is apt to injure the bristles.

A woman who sews a great deal of the time has found that her back does not become so tired if her chair is low, or if she has a stool upon which to rest her feet. It is surprising what a difference the comfortable position makes and how much more work she can do. Should the arms become weary she puts a cushion in her lap. On this she rests her elbows, changing the position of her sewing, thus giving both arms and eyes a chance to recover.

Benzine is also good to clean the keys of a piano, but denatured alcohol is quite as satisfactory, and much cheaper, besides not having a disagreeable odor. Make the rag just damp enough to remove the soil, when too wet it runs into the cracks and injures the wires.

Fresh Water from Ocean.

Menama, the principal port of the Bahrain islands, the center of the pearl fisheries, gets its fresh water from the ocean. Visitors often note boats anchored a few hundred yards from the shore, the boatmen engaged in drawing fresh water from springs at the bottom of the sea. These springs well up strongly at a considerable depth and the entire water supply of the town is obtained from them. The fresh water is procured in two ways—either in a goatskin bag, which a diver takes down with him and carefully closes before bringing it to the surface, or by letting down long hol pipes of bamboo, weighted at the lower end, through which the water rises up uncontaminated to the surface.

Man's Inhumanity to Woman.

In all the civilized cities of the world woman is encouraged to demoralize herself and hold herself cheap in music hall, theater and even in opera house, for what man of proper instincts would like to see his daughter or sister in the attitudes and in the drapery so popular at such places? It all comes from denying to woman a responsible voice in the highest affairs and placing her on a lower plane. It is proposed to legally forbid her to serve in a public house, because of its bad moral atmosphere, which men alone have given it, while public opinion allows her to make reckless displays on the stage of the theater and music hall—Westminster Review.

Pie Crust for One Pie.

Six tablespoons melted lard and 3 tablespoons warm water, a good pinch of salt, flour enough to make a stiff dough. Take one-half of the mixture for lower crust, then roll out top crust, spread with melted lard. Sift a very little flour over top. Before putting in the oven cut a slit in the top crust, put under faucet and wet with cold water. This makes the crust flaky. This recipe will make one pie.

Every Woman is interested in this new discovery. It is a new kind of hair cream, which gives the hair a soft, wavy, and glossy appearance. It is sold in bottles of 25¢ and 50¢. Write to: MARVEL WHITING SPRAY, 100 East 24th Street, New York.

Not Improbable. "I don't know how true it is," said the Irishman, "but they tell me that the dime museum bearded lady just died and left a wife and four children."
